

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS ALL OVER THE WORLD

Short Stories of Unusual Happenings and Singular Experiences Picked Out of the Chronicles of To-Day.

Answering his wife's suit for divorce, Adams she kept a standing advertisement in a matrimonial paper for his hands and prepared food for him which made him sick.

He says he saw the "ad" and answered it. They met, loved and married.

Barton supposed she would stop the advertisement then, but she didn't. She received about fifty letters a week, he says, from men wishing to marry her. One day she got a note from a man who said he had $800, and from that time on Mrs. Barton avers the husband, with a changed woman.

He then began to feel ill after eating her food and, fearing poison, left her.

14 BABIES BORN TO 1,020 CLUBWOMEN.

A census has just been completed in Milwaukee of clubwomen and the children born to them within a year.

The official figures given out show that the ten clubs of the town have 1,020 members.

The number of children born to them was fourteen.

There would only have been thirteen if Judge Nielsen's wife had not had twins.

BABY WAS SAFETY VAULT FOR $1,245.

A party of foreigners were arrested at Chicago on word from Schenectady last night, accusing one of them of stealing $1,245.

The men and women of the party were searched and found almost penniless. Then Matron Murphy searched the babies, three in all.

The smallest, about a year old, was found to be a baby of the stolen money. In the lining of its coat and dress gold certificates for the dozen were found, totalling $1,245.

WOMEN BOYCOTTING 'HATLESS' CHURCHES.

Pastors of churches at Ashtabula, O., are asking a boycott. They have complained that women of their congregations take off their hats at services.

And the women have flatly refused, agreeing they will keep away from their houses of worship until the order is publicly withdrawn.

'PHONES REPORT OF HIS OWN MURDER.

John Harris, assistant agent of the Nevada and Ausable Steamship Company's docks at Ashtabula, Mich., was shot by a robber in his office last evening. The man escaped.

Dragging himself to the telephone Harris called up the central office of his company.

THESE THREE ALSO RAN.

Brady, Rockefeller and Murphy took part in a race at election.

Anthony N. Brady, gas and street railway magnate, was revealed by the official canvass of the vote begun yesterday in the City Hall to have been a dark horse candidate for Judge of the City Court. Mr. Brady received one vote for that office in the Third Assembly District.

John D. Rockefeller also received a vote for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the same district. There also Charles F. Murphy received one vote for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

The Third Assembly is "Little Tim" Sullivan's district. It is believed that it harbors a Joker.
